CENTER for REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS

Pamela—

After my abortion, I breathed a huge sigh of relief.

All in all, it was uneventful. I was a junior in college at the time and found a doctor in the yellow pages. I went to an office with my boyfriend, and the procedure was painless. I didn't have to drive far, nobody provided me with misinformation, and there was no waiting period.

Decades later, I still have no regrets. And I still have gratitude that I was able to make the decision that was right for me, and to become a parent when I was ready. I am now the proud mother of two children, one with a disability, with my husband of 25 years.

All people deserve the right to make this important decision for themselves. That's why I'm speaking out against the escalating attempts to rob us of this fundamental and constitutional right. And that's why I'm reaching out to you now.

For more than 25 years, the Center for Reproductive Rights has been on the front lines of the fight to defend the constitutional right to access safe abortion care. I have been proudly working with the Center for more than five years, and they need our support now more than ever.

Right now, a group of their supporters will match your gift 10 to 1 when you make a special Giving Tuesday donation. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to have your gift multiplied—join me by making a special Giving Tuesday contribution of \$50.00 or more before midnight tomorrow to the Center for Reproductive Rights.

In our current political climate, patients are often forced to go to great lengths to access abortion care—an extraordinarily safe medical procedure that is essential health care. They drive for hours, take days off work, endure long waiting periods, and shuffle through crowds of protesters hell-bent on shaming them into submission.

The Center for Reproductive Rights is right there with us, working tirelessly to protect our fundamental and constitutional rights. We've always been able to count on the Center to fight for us.

Today, I'm asking you to join me in returning that favor. Can I count on you to make a tax-deductible Giving Tuesday gift before midnight tomorrow?

We must come together to make sure they can grow their capacity and prepare for whatever comes next. Please don't miss this chance to have your contribution matched tenfold to fund this critical work—millions are counting on us.

Thank you for stepping up,
