Pamela,

We are so grateful for the love you share with Family & Youth Initiative youth!

This incredible community would not exist if not for you.

Because of you,

- A teen who felt like everything in her world was going wrong has a trusted adult who has listened, offered support, and spent a recent day giving the teen the thing she needed most - someone's undivided attention;
- Another teen is visiting and preparing to move in with the adoptive family they met through DCFYI;
- A young adult who has finally figured out a career path is excited to share her plans and get the support of her Open Table.

You make Valentine's Day and every day better and brighter for DCFYI participants.

Because you've shared your love, the DCFYI community keeps growing, which means more teens and youth will get wrapped in supportive relationships.

Thank you.

Thank you for making DCFYI an incredible, supportive community for the amazing teens we serve.

Sending you so much love this Valentine's Day from all of us at Family & Youth Initiative!
