You've made a difference today

Pamela,

Today, you get an A+ for being awesome.

You've made a gift that goes beyond the dollars and cents on your donation receipt. You've given much-needed resources to a classroom in need. You've given peace of mind to a teacher who wants the very best for her students. And you've given a virtual high five to students who are about to have an even more inspiring classroom, thanks to you.

In the coming weeks, you'll get thank-you letters and photos from the classroom you helped. In the meantime, read our story.

Thanks for making your first donation on DonorsChoose.org, and for making a difference.

Sincerely,

Charles Best,
Founder and CEO
