Pamela,

Children like Susan are starving in Honduras. Nutritional centers that could save their lives lack the resources to care for these malnourished children.

As the enclosed email explains, the survival of children like Susan depends on you. Your gift of $35 can save precious lives.

Robin,

I am writing to let you know about a desperate situation in Honduras. Food insecurity is reaching crisis levels, and children are starving. Our nutritional center does not have the resources to help so many malnourished children.

Little Susan came to the center at 7 1/2 months old and weighing just 7 pounds. Susan is 9 months old now and weighs 9 pounds. A healthy baby girl her age should weigh twice that amount. It is heartbreaking to pick her up and feel only bones and her bloated, parasite-ridden belly. But she is not the only one. We are working tirelessly to try to help so many others just like her. The situation is dire.

Innocent children like Susan who come from poverty-stricken families suffer the most. Without help, they will bear the physical and mental effects of malnutrition for the rest of their lives — if they survive.

Please Robin, tell your donors that we are desperate. We need to save these children, but we can't do it alone. Your donors have helped us overcome desperate times like these in the past. I pray that they will once again help us in our time of great need. Babies like Susan are depending on them.

God bless you and your ministry,

Gloria Elvir
