Pamela, I have great news: You could have a baby alpaca named after you!

That's right! We have an adorable baby alpaca on the Heifer Urban Farm. And of course, that little one needs a name.

You're invited to get in on the fun: We're going to name our baby alpaca after one lucky donor who gives before midnight Thursday. Will it be you?

GIVE TO ENTER

Any gift you give, whether it's $10 or $120, will enter your name into the pool. On Friday, June 15, we'll pick one person's name at random to give to our newborn alpaca, and share it on Facebook!

But you don't just get a chance to win. Every dollar you give to Heifer International today will go toward empowering a family in need. You'll provide life-changing livestock (including alpacas!), training and support to change the futures of entire communities.

This baby alpaca could be named after YOU, Pamela. All you need to do is give before midnight Thursday.

Good luck!

P.S. If you'd like to enter but don't want to give today, that's okay too — you can enter your name here.

DONATE

Only contest entries made through this email or Heifer's Facebook page will be applicable for alpaca naming. Contest rules apply.
