Pamela,

Did you know that August is National Make-A-Will Month?

It's important for everyone to have an up-to-date will, and now is a great time to think about what matters most to you.

At Mother Jones, we're grateful that many of our supporters have included a gift to us in their will or other estate plan because they know there will always be important stories that must be told—and they trust Mother Jones to tell them.

At a time when trust in the media is at an all-time low, we're able to break through because our journalists' work is rock solid: They are known for pursuing the truth, verifying facts, and exposing corruption wherever it's found. It's not easy.

A gift in your will or other estate plan will empower us to continue to investigate deeply, tell the most critical stories, and elevate important viewpoints. And your gift will help Mother Jones reach new audiences who yearn for facts and truth in a world where they're increasingly hard to come by.

You don't need to be wealthy to make a difference. And it won't cost you anything right now. Will you make a pledge to the future of independent media and include a gift to Mother Jones in your will or trust, or name Mother Jones as a beneficiary of your retirement plan, life insurance, donor-advised fund, or other financial account?

The future is what we make it. Together, through the impact of Mother Jones' fearless journalism and with your pledge for the future, we can keep democracy's light burning bright.

You'll have the satisfaction of knowing that, thanks to you, future generations will have access to the truth—whatever it takes to get it to them.

Thank you for your vision, your passion for justice, and your consideration.

With gratitude,

Lisa Schachter
Advancement Officer
