

Wear your love this Valentine's Day

Preemptive Love Coalition info@preemptive

Pamela,

Love is all about intention. Without intentional steps toward peace and reconciliation, it becomes nothing more than a momentary feeling.

Step forward in love this Valentine's Day—not the saccharine, hyper-commercialized sentiment. The real thing. Wear our new Love Anyway socks, or give them to someone you love, as a reminder to walk intentionally in preemptive love.

Two new sock designs available now!
