Care. No matter what.

Dear Pamela,

It's National Nurses week! Nurses care for patients like no one else — and not just when it comes to treatment. When we need a reassuring smile, a hand to hold, or just to know that someone is there with us, nurses are there. This week, we're saying "thank you" to all of the nurses who work so hard every day to care for their patients.

Nurses are the heart and soul of health care in this country — so let's show them the appreciation they deserve. Will you show your thanks by signing a card today? We'll deliver your note to Planned Parenthood health center staff in your area.

Planned Parenthood health center nurses work so hard to ensure that people have access to the full range of reproductive health care — including cancer screenings, birth control, testing and treatment for STDs, and accurate sexual and reproductive health information.

Nurses protect the lives and health of millions of people, families, and communities daily by providing quality health care with skill, dedication, and with compassion.

Nurses are always there for their patients. The least we can do is show how much we appreciate them this week. Show your appreciation with a thank you today!

And thank YOU for staying with us,

Jacqueline Ayers, Senior Vice President of Policy, Campaigns, Advocacy
Planned Parenthood Federation of America

PUBLIC EDUCATION

We are many. There is power in our numbers. Together we will save our schools.

Dear Pamela,

IT'S TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK!

Make sure you thank a teacher
today and every day.

Ten years ago, the Network for Public Education was born to support our public schools and their students and teachers. It was a difficult time—an era in which politicians promoted teacher evaluation by test scores, school closures, and the poorly implemented and unrealistic standards and testing of the Common Core.

Our first conference in Austin, Texas brought together teachers and parents from all over the country who united, stood up, and fought back. Teachers left that conference, and all subsequent conferences, feeling empowered and prepared to support their profession and public education. They formed many of the grassroots organizations that are fighting for public schools today.

Won't you celebrate Teacher Appreciation Week by helping to bring a teacher to our tenth-anniversary conference this year? This week all tax deductible donations to NPE will go toward our teacher scholarship fund.

Our tenth-anniversary conference with a line-up of outstanding speakers will be our best and most important conference yet as we gather to fight against the right-wing forces determined to destroy and defund public education and turn it into a marketplace system of unregulated voucher schools, homeschools, online schools and yes, even religious private charter schools.

Our nation, democracy, and our children are depending on us.

If you are able to contribute $250 or more, your name will be recognized in our program as an individual conference sponsor. We are, of course, happy to accept any level of giving you can afford.
